

Johnson & Johnson

Swiss Trauma Innovation Series

September 5, 2025

Start: 09:00

End: 17:00

Johnson & Johnson AG

Luzernstrasse 21

4528 Zuchwil

Registration:

Please contact your local JnJ trauma sales consultant to register for this event.

Faculty

Dr. med. univ. Andreas
Ladurner, Stadtspital
Zürich Triemli

Overview

This one-day event provides participants with the opportunity to learn more about the latest innovations and trends in trauma care. Besides a focus on practical exercises in the wetlab, the format also includes workshops around implant removal, power tools and much more.

Program

09:00	Arrival, registration & coffee	All
09:30	Welcome & introduction	JnJ
10:00	Group 1: Workshops "Innovation in Trauma" Group 2: Practical exercises in the wetlab	JnJ Dr. A. Ladurner
12:30	Lunch	All
13:30	Group 1: Practical exercises in the wetlab Group 2: Workshops "Innovation in Trauma"	Dr. A. Ladurner JnJ
16:00	Quiz: Test your knowledge	All
16:30	Wrap up, feedback & outlook	JnJ
17:00	Close and individual departure	All

Group Exercises

Practical exercises in the wetlab

- Proximal femur nail osteosynthesis with cement augmentation
- Periprosthetic plate osteosynthesis
- Retrograde nail osteosynthesis

Workshops "Innovation in Trauma"

1. Hardware removal - Tips & Tricks from the experts
2. Innovation in plates and screws - Past, present and future
3. Power tools - Insights from and hands-on with the experts

Delegate Criteria

This course is aimed at experienced resident surgeons (erfahrene Assistenz-ärzte/-ärztinnen) and attending surgeons (Oberärzte/-ärztinnen) wishing to learn more about the latest innovations in trauma.

CME credits from Swiss Orthopaedics have been requested.

J&J
Institute

SWISS TOOLS

Johnson & Johnson AG 2025. All rights reserved